

Mad City Quilt Guild presents

The Evie Workshop by Tara Miller/Quilt District

Inspiration from a vintage quilted coverlet made by Eveler Blankenship in Kansas in 1970. These scrappy string kaleidoscope blocks are fun to make and go together quickly. Use up your scraps or cut up assorted fat quarters – it's up to you!

No specialty rulers needed, either!

Tara is part of The Quilt District, as a quilt designer, maker, and enthusiast. She serves on the Board of Directors of the American Quilt Study Group (AQSG), is a member of the Modern Quilt Guild, and has connections with Quiltfolk magazine and Quiltmania. Quiltdistrict.com

Many of these have a surprisingly modern aesthetic! Throughout the conversation, we’ll put these quilts in context historically, socially, artistically. We’ll explore some of our connections with the past that inform us, inspire us, and drive us in the art and practice of quilt making today.”*
